Notice of Exemption Under the Health and Safety in Employment (Pressure Equipment, Cranes, and Passenger Ropeways) Regulations 1999

Pursuant to Regulation 5 of the Health and Safety in Employment (Pressure Equipment, Cranes and Passenger Ropeways) Regulations 1999 ("PECPR Regulations"), I, Richard Steel, in exercise of those powers delegated to me by WorkSafe New Zealand, hereby give notice that exemption is granted to controllers of timber treatment vessels from those duties in Regulation 10 of the PECPR Regulations, which require equipment to have a certificate of inspection.

This exemption applies to all treatment vessels that conform to the following criteria:

1. The vessels were in service prior to 1 March 2004.

2. The maximum water capacity of the vessels does not exceed 95,000 litres.
3. The design pressure of the vessels does not exceed 1700KPa.
4. The vessels operate at ambient temperature.
5. The vessels are full of liquid when under pressure. (There is no steam or air pad within the vessels).
6. The treatment fluids are those water-borne preservatives that are currently used within the New Zealand timber treatment industry and are categorised as copper chrome arsenate (CCA), alkaline copper quaternary (ACQ), copper azole (CuAz), micronized copper quaternary, micronized copper azole and boron compounds.
7. The ACQ, CCA and CuAz preservatives are used in the timber treatment vessels at a maximum of 6% concentration in water.
8. The boron compound preservatives are used in timber treatment vessels at a maximum of 20% concentration in water.

This exemption is subject to the following conditions:

1. The commissioning date, contained treatment fluids and operating parameters of the vessels must conform to the criteria in 1-8 above.
2. The timber treatment system must have a current stationary container system issued under the Hazardous Substances and New Organism Act 1996.
3. There shall be an inspection of the vessels and associated pressure equipment by an equipment inspector employed by an inspection body recognised under the PECPR Regulations or a chartered professional engineer. The condition of the vessels and equipment and any recommendations for modifications, repairs, maintenance and servicing shall be reported to the controller by the inspector or engineer. These inspection reports shall be kept in the place of work where the equipment is located and be readily accessible to the test certifier and any other person in that place of work who wants to examine them.
4. 46 Conditional grant letter assistance: eligibility

49 Conditional grant letter assistance: conditional grant

Any conditional grant letter assistance granted to an applicant under clause 6(1) is a conditional grant and is only payable if and to the extent that the applicant has, within a period specified by the chief executive, met the conditions for payment of all or part of that assistance under clause 51.

50 Conditional grant letter assistance: procedure following grant

(1) If the chief executive grants conditional grant assistance under clause 6(1) to an applicant, the chief executive must—

(a) issue the applicant with a letter (a conditional grant letter) stating—

(i) that the applicant has been granted conditional grant letter assistance; and

(ii) the components and maximum amounts of that assistance; and

(iii) the conditions for payment of all or any of that assistance (as set out in clause 51); and

(iv) the period in which the conditional grant letter is valid (being the period specified under clause 49 within which the conditions of the grant must be satisfied); and

(b) take reasonable steps to assist the applicant to understand the conditions of the grant.

(2) A conditional grant letter may contain any other information or advice the chief executive thinks fit.

51 Conditional grant letter assistance: conditions of payment

The conditions that must be met before conditional grant letter assistance is payable under clause 52 are that, within the period specified by the chief executive under clause 49, the applicant has supplied the department with the information and documentation required to satisfy the chief executive that—

(a) the applicant (whether alone or together with another person) has become a tenant under a tenancy agreement for alternative housing; and

(b) for payment of the letting fees assistance component of the assistance, the applicant has paid or become liable to pay a letting fee in respect of entering that tenancy agreement; and

(c) for payment of the bond component of the assistance, the tenancy agreement requires the payment of a bond; and

(d) for payment of the rent in advance component of the assistance, either—

- (i) the tenancy agreement requires payment of rent in advance at the start of the tenancy; or
- (ii) the landlord has demanded payment of rent in advance at the start of the tenancy

52 Conditional grant letter assistance: payment

(1) This clause applies if the chief executive is satisfied that—

- (a) the conditions set out in clause 51 have been met within the period specified under clause 49; and
- (b) 1 or more of paragraphs (b) to (d) of clause 51 applies.

(2) If this clause applies, the chief executive must in accordance with clause 9 make payment of the 1 or more components of the conditional grant letter assistance for which the conditions of payment have been met within the appropriate maximum amounts set out in the conditional grant letter.

53 Conditional grant letter assistance recoverable in certain circumstances

(1) Any payment of a grant of conditional grant letter assistance is recoverable from the applicant if subclause (2) applies.

(2) This subclause applies if, within 52 weeks from the date of payment of the grant or any component of the grant, the applicant or his or her spouse or partner again becomes a person awaiting allocation of social housing.

(3) If subclause (2) applies, the amount of the payment is a debt due to the Crown by the applicant for the purpose of section 85A(d)(i) of the Act.”

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of June 2015.

Hon ANNE TOLLEY, Minister for Social Development.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the instrument, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This instrument comes into effect on 29 June 2015. It amends the Housing Support Assistance Programme under the Social Security Act 1964. The effect of this instrument is to introduce assistance for rent in advance as a standard grant under Part 2 of the Programme and changes the existing letting fees assistance from recoverable to non-recoverable assistance. It also inserts a new Part 3 that introduces new conditional grants of assistance towards bond, rent in advance and letting fees to encourage private landlords to let housing to people on the social housing register by providing written assurance that they will be able to access financial assistance towards the costs of entering a tenancy for alternative housing if certain conditions are met. These new conditional grants will be supported by a conditional grant letter and will be recoverable in certain circumstances.

Ministerial Exemptions Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009

In accordance with section 157(6)(b) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“Act”), the Associate Minister of Justice hereby gives notice that he has granted the following exemptions

from the Act:

Ministerial Exemption: AMP (NMLA) New Zealand Superannuation Scheme

1. In my capacity as the Associate Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“Act”), I exempt the trustees of the AMP (NMLA) New Zealand Superannuation Scheme (“Scheme”) from the provisions of Part 2 of the Act in relation to services provided as trustees of the Scheme.
2. This exemption is subject to the following conditions:
 - a. Subject to paragraphs 3 and 4 below, the Scheme’s trust deed may not enable members to contribute to the Scheme voluntarily other than through payroll (which means, for the purposes of this exemption, by way of deduction from Salary as defined in the trust deed for the Scheme).
 - b. The Scheme must remain a registered superannuation scheme as defined under the Superannuation Schemes Act 1989 or registered under the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013, as applicable.
 - c. With the exception of Australian superannuation transfers to the Scheme (if applicable), customer due diligence in accordance with sections 10–36 of the Act and suspicious transaction reports in accordance with sections 40–48 of the Act and, where the transaction is relevant to a suspicious transaction report, transaction records in accordance with section 49(1) and (2)(a)–(f) of the Act are required on all contributions and transfers to the Scheme from international sources.
3. The trust deed may permit voluntary contributions made other than through payroll for the purpose of purchasing additional pensionable service, provided that the Scheme undertakes enhanced customer due diligence on every member who applies to purchase any additional service by making such contributions.
4. The trust deed for the Scheme may permit contributions to be made to the Scheme other than through payroll by a member during a permitted period of unpaid leave of absence (Regular Leave of Absence Contributions) where:
 - a. a Participating Company (as defined in the trust deed of the Scheme) or the Scheme’s administrator collects those contributions; and
 - b. the contributions do not exceed (as to either amount or frequency) the contributions that were being paid by the relevant member in accordance with the trust deed for the Scheme immediately prior to the member commencing leave of absence.
5. Where any Regular Leave of Absence Contributions are received from international sources during the permitted period of unpaid leave of absence, the following sections of the Act apply to such contributions:
 - a. Sections 10–17 of the Act (and for the purposes of section 14(d) of the Act the receipt of a contribution from an international source is specified as a circumstance in which standard customer due diligence must be conducted);
 - b. sections 40–48 of the Act;
 - c. where the transaction is relevant to a suspicious transaction report, sections 49(1) and 2(a)–(f) of the Act; and
 - d. sections 92–100 of the Act.
6. Where any withdrawals are made by a member in addition to that member making Regular Leave of Absence Contributions during the permitted period of unpaid leave of absence, the following sections of the Act apply to such withdrawals and contributions:
 - a. Sections 10–17 of the Act (and for the purposes of section 14(d) of the Act the first such withdrawal is specified as a circumstance in which standard customer due diligence must be conducted);
 - b. sections 40–48 of the Act;
 - c. where the transaction is relevant to a suspicious transaction report, sections 49(1) and (2)(a)–(f) of the Act; and
 - d. sections 92–100 of the Act.
7. The exemption has been granted for the following reasons:

- a. The Scheme poses a very low risk of money laundering or terrorist financing;
 - b. any risks posed by voluntary contributions outside of payroll have been addressed by the conditions;
 - c. the Scheme is permanently closed to new members;
 - d. due to the very low money laundering and terrorist financing risks raised by the Scheme and the significant compliance costs that would arise from not granting this exemption, I consider that any benefits of requiring compliance with the Act are not justified by the associated costs; and
 - e. this exemption is consistent with (and has no effect on the purpose or intent of) the Act, the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996 and New Zealand's international obligations as a member of the Financial Action Task Force and the Asia Pacific Group on Money Laundering.
8. This exemption came into force on the day after the date I granted this exemption (13 June 2015).
9. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2018.

Ministerial Exemption: Employee Retirement Plan

1. In my capacity as the Associate Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 ("Act"), I exempt the trustee of the Employee Retirement Plan ("Plan") from the provisions of Part 2 of the Act in relation to services provided as trustee of the Plan.
2. This exemption is subject to the following conditions:
 - a. Subject to paragraphs 3 and 4 below, the trustee must remove any mechanisms contained in the Employer Agreement between the trustee and the Secretary for Education that enable members to contribute to the Plan voluntarily other than through payroll. This includes the ability of the trustee to accept contributions in any form, in its absolute discretion.
 - b. The Plan must remain a registered superannuation scheme as defined under the Superannuation Schemes Act 1989 or registered under the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013, as applicable.
 - c. With the exception of Australian superannuation transfers to the Plan (if applicable), customer due diligence in accordance with sections 10-36 of the Act and suspicious transaction reports in accordance with sections 40-48 of the Act and, where the transaction is relevant to a suspicious transaction report, transaction records in accordance with section 49(1) and (2)(a)-(f) of the Act are required on all contributions and transfers to the Scheme from international sources.
3. The trust deed may permit voluntary contributions made other than through payroll to those sections of the Plan which are subject to restrictions set out in the complying fund rules (as defined in section YA 1 of the Income Tax Act 2007), provided there is a cap on any non-payroll voluntary contribution. The cap should be set at the amount (after taking into account any contribution through payroll) required to enable a member to maximise those government contributions set out in section MK 4 of the Income Tax Act 2007.
4. The trust deed for the Plan may permit contributions to be made to the Plan other than through payroll by a member during a permitted period of unpaid leave of absence (Regular Leave of Absence Contributions) where:
 - a. the employer or the Plan's administrator collects those contributions; and
 - b. the contributions do not exceed (as to either amount or frequency) the contributions that were being paid by the relevant member in accordance with the trust deed for the Plan immediately prior to the member commencing leave of absence.
5. Where any Regular Leave of Absence Contributions are received from international sources during the permitted period of unpaid leave of absence, the following sections of the Act apply to such contributions:
 - a. Sections 10-17 of the Act (and for the purposes of section 14(d) of the Act the receipt of a contribution from an international source is specified as a circumstance in which standard customer due diligence must be conducted);
 - b. sections 40-48 of the Act;
 - c. where the transaction is relevant to a suspicious transaction report, sections 49(1) and 2(a)-(f) of the

Act; and

- d. sections 92-100 of the Act.
6. Where any withdrawals are made by a member in addition to that member making Regular Leave of Absence Contributions during the permitted period of unpaid leave of absence, the following sections of the Act apply to such withdrawals and contributions:
 - a. Sections 10-17 of the Act (and for the purposes of section 14(d) of the Act the first such withdrawal is specified as a circumstance in which standard customer due diligence must be conducted);
 - b. sections 40-48 of the Act;
 - c. where the transaction is relevant to a suspicious transaction report, sections 49(1) and (2)(a)-(f) of the Act; and
 - d. sections 92-100 of the Act.
7. The exemption has been granted for the following reasons:
 - a. The Plan poses a very low risk of money laundering or terrorist financing;
 - b. any risks posed by voluntary contributions outside of payroll have been addressed by the conditions;
 - c. due to the very low money laundering and terrorist financing risks raised by the Scheme and the significant compliance costs that would arise from not granting this exemption, I consider that any benefits of requiring compliance with the Act are not justified by the associated costs; and
 - d. this exemption is consistent with (and has no effect on the purpose or intent of) the Act, the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996 and New Zealand's international obligations as a member of the Financial Action Task Force and the Asia Pacific Group on Money Laundering.
8. This exemption came into force on the day after the date I granted this exemption (17 June 2015).
9. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2018.
