Notification of Amendments to Input Methodologies for Electricity Distribution Services, Gas Distribution Services and Gas Transmission Services

The Commerce Commission (“Commission”) gives notice that it has amended the input methodologies (IMs) applicable to electricity distribution services, gas distribution services and gas transmission services under Part 4 of the Commerce Act 1986 (“Act”).

The amended IMs are:

- Electricity Distribution Services Input Methodologies Determination 2012 [2012] NZCC 26;
- Gas Distribution Services Input Methodologies Determination 2012 [2012] NZCC 27; and
- Gas Transmission Services Input Methodologies Determination 2012 [2012] NZCC 28.

The amendments are set out in the Electricity and Gas (Customised Paths) Input Methodology Amendments Determination 2015 [2015] NZCC 28.

The amendments have been made under the fast-track process we commenced for considering the customised price-quality path (CPP) IMs under section 52Y(1) of the Act.

The amendments are intended to introduce more flexibility and clarity for suppliers in relation to CPP proposals by:

- allowing modifications and exemptions to the requirements for the process for preparing, and the content of, CPP proposals, where such modifications and exemptions are approved by the Commission;
- in certain instances allowing a CPP applicant making a CPP proposal to use alternative methodologies that have equivalent effect to the specified methodologies; and
- clarifying that the Commission may determine that a CPP proposal complies with the requirements for the process for, and content of, CPP proposals, if the CPP proposal complies with the requirements “in all material respects”.

A copy of the amendment determination is available on the Commission’s website www.comcom.govt.nz/regulated-industries/input-methodologies-2/input-methodologies-review/cpp-fast-track-processes-for-im-review/and for inspection free of charge, or for purchase at a reasonable price at the Commission’s office at 44 The Terrace, Wellington (during ordinary office hours).

The Commerce Commission (“Commission”) gives notice that it has amended the Transpower Individual Price-Quality Path Determination 2015 [2014] NZCC 35 (RCP2 IPP determination) under Part 4 of the Commerce Act 1986 (“Act”).

The amendments were made under section 52Q of the Act on 5 November 2015, and are set out in the Transpower Individual Price-Quality Path Amendment Determination 2015 [2015] NZCC 29 (“amendment determination”).

Under clause 10 of the RCP2 IPP determination the Commission may reconsider and amend Transpower’s forecast MAR for each pricing year of the regulatory period by the second Wednesday of November of each year.

The purpose of the trial is to:

- a. evaluate the effectiveness and safety of identifying a special vehicle lane for buses, cycles, mopeds,

- b. enable the use of road markings with the words "TAXI BUS LANE" to indicate a special vehicle lane for buses, cycles, mopeds, motorcycles and taxis, in combination with either of the signs described in Schedule 2;
- c. assess drivers' understanding and compliance with the combination of signs and markings described in this notice to identify a special vehicle lane for buses, cycles, mopeds, motorcycles and taxis.

Schedule 2—Form and layout of taxi and bus lane signs and markings

For the purposes of the trial, the special vehicle lane for buses, cycles, mopeds, motorcycles and taxis must be identified with:

- a. the words "TAXI BUS LANE" marked on the road surface at the beginning of the lane in white letters that comply with Schedule 2 of the Rule;
- b. a sign installed at the beginning of the lane that conforms with option A or B in the following description:

Note: The dimensions, descriptions and terms used to describe the signs in this notice conform to the opening notes in Schedule 1 of the Rule.

Example:

Taxi and bus lane sign option A (left) and option B (right).

Additional signs and markings that conform with the description in this schedule may be installed if Auckland Transport considers it necessary to identify the special vehicle lane or to discourage the use of the lane by other vehicles.

Schedule 3—Location

The location approved for this trial is Grafton Bridge between Symonds Street and Grafton Road in Auckland.

Schedule 4—Period of trial

The trial may begin after the publication of this notice and, unless terminated earlier, must end by 30 November 2016.

Schedule 5—Evaluation

An evaluation must be undertaken and a report prepared which includes discussion and analysis of the following:

- a. measurement of any changes in driver behaviour during the trial, including:
 - i. an assessment of the level of special vehicle lane infringements issued during the trial;
 - ii. an assessment of the level of challenges to special vehicle lane infringements arising during the trial;

An interim evaluation report must be sent to me by 31 May 2016 and a final report by 31 March 2017.

Signed at Wellington this 16th day of November 2015.

Ministerial Exemptions Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009

In accordance with section 157(6)(b) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“Act”), the Associate Minister of Justice hereby gives notice that he has granted the following exemption from the Act:

Ministerial Exemption: Spark Finance Limited

1. In this exemption, unless the context otherwise requires:

Company means Spark Finance Limited.

Specified Securities means debt securities issued by the company.

Spark Group means Spark New Zealand Limited (Spark) and its subsidiaries.

2. In my capacity as the Associate Minister of Justice, and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“the Act”), I exempt the company from the provisions of this Act that would otherwise apply in respect of Specified Securities.
3. This exemption is made subject to the following conditions:
 - a. The company must at all times be a wholly owned subsidiary of Spark.
 - b. The company must at all times use at least 95% of the subscriptions raised from the issue of Specified Securities to lend funds to, or to subscribe for or purchase securities in, any member of the Spark Group.
 - c. The issue of debt securities, whether by the company or by other members of the Spark Group, is not a financial activity carried on in the ordinary course of business of the Spark Group taken as a whole.
4. Having regard to the matters set out in section 157(3) of the Act, the exemption has been granted for the following reasons:
 - a. As a matter of legal form the company is an entity established with a main purpose of raising funding for the Spark Group, including by issuing debt securities to the public, therefore it would be subject to anti-money laundering and financing of terrorism compliance obligations but for the exemption. However, as a matter of substance, the company is an administrative vehicle that the Spark Group uses for occasional issues of debt securities that are not in the ordinary course of the business of the Spark Group. The last time that the company issued debt securities to the public was in 2008. Having regard to the risk of money laundering and financing of terrorism, it is more appropriate to treat the company as a one-off or occasional issuer of debt for regulatory purposes than it would be to treat it as an entity that issues to the public in the ordinary course of business.
 - b. Given the frequency with which the company issues debt securities, the regulatory burden of requiring ongoing compliance as though it were a debt issuer in the ordinary course of business would be disproportionate to the benefits.

c. The conditions ensure:

- i. It continues to be appropriate to treat the company as an administrative funding vehicle for the Spark Group in that it must continue to be wholly owned by the Spark Group and 95% of subscriptions raised are for on-lending to the Spark Group; and
- ii. The risk profile of the company remains consistent with that of an occasional or one-off issuer in that the issue of debt securities, whether from within the company or from other parts of the Spark Group, is not a financial activity carried on in the ordinary course of business of the Spark Group taken as a whole.

5. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption (9 November 2015).

6. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2018.
