Allocation of Broadcasting Time and Money for the 2017 General Election

The deadline by which political parties must give written notice to the Electoral Commission of eligibility for an allocation of broadcasting time or money under the Broadcasting Act 1989 for the 2017 General Election is Friday 3 March 2017 at 5.00pm.

The Broadcasting Act 1989 (“Act”) describes the responsibilities of the Electoral Commission (“Commission”) to allocate time and money to eligible political parties to enable them to broadcast election programmes during the election period.

The Commission allocates to eligible political parties:

- a. the time that is made available by Television New Zealand (TVNZ) and Radio New Zealand (RNZ) free of charge for the broadcasting of opening and closing addresses; and
- b. the money that is appropriated by Parliament for the purpose of funding the broadcast of election programmes during the election period.

Eligibility for allocation of broadcasting time and money

The Commission must not allocate any time to a political party under section 73 of the Act, or make an allocation of money under 74A of the Act, in respect of an election period unless:

- a. the party has given the Commission written notice by 3 March 2017 at 5.00pm that the party considers itself eligible for an allocation of time under section 73 of the Act or of money under section 74A of the Act; and
- b. the party is registered with the Commission at the time Parliament is dissolved.

What the notice must contain

Notices should be addressed to the Electoral Commission.

In accordance with section 70C of the Act, every notice given to the Commission must state:

- a. the full name of the political party;
- b. the name and address of the person providing the notice and the capacity in which he or she provides the notice;
- c. where the person providing the notice is not the secretary of the political party, the name and address of the secretary of the political party;
- d. details of any relationships that may exist between that political party and any other political parties in New Zealand which the Commission may need to take into account in allocating time or money to political parties;
- e. either:
 - i. that the party is registered on the Register of Political Parties; or
 - ii. that the party is intending to apply for registration on the Register of Political Parties in order to be registered at the date of dissolution or expiry of Parliament; and
- f. whether or not the political party intends to submit a list under section 127 of the Electoral Act 1993 for the 2017 General Election.

How to give notice

Notices may be given by mail, facsimile or email, or can be delivered by hand to the Electoral Commission's office.

The Commission's postal address is PO Box 3220, Wellington 6140. Telephone: (04) 495 0030. Facsimile: (04) 495 0031. Email: enquiries@elections.govt.nz. The Commission is located at Level 10, 34-42 Manners Street, Wellington.

Broadcasting (Election Programmes and Election Advertising) Amendment Bill 2016 (Broadcasting Amendment Bill)

On 27 October 2016, the Broadcasting Amendment Bill was introduced into Parliament. The Broadcasting Amendment Bill proposes to:

- remove the requirements for opening and closing addresses to be broadcast at election time, along with the need for TVNZ and RNZ to provide free broadcasting time for these addresses; and
- enable parties to use their allocations of funding for Internet advertising, in addition to television and radio as currently permitted.

Although the changes proposed affect the allocation, to ensure timely decisions, the Commission is commencing the early stages of the process under the current legislation which will include asking TVNZ and RNZ what times will be made available for opening and closing addresses.

Dated at Wellington this 2nd day of February 2017.

Issued on behalf of the Electoral Commission:
ALICIA WRIGHT, Chief Electoral Officer, Electoral Commission.

Electricity Industry (Exemption No. 250 (Trustpower Limited)) Exemption Notice 2016

Under section 11 of the Electricity Industry Act 2010 (“Act”), the Electricity Authority gives the following notice.

Notice

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice is the Electricity Industry (Exemption No. 250 (Trustpower Limited)) Exemption Notice 2016.

(2) This notice comes into force on the day after the date it is notified in the New Zealand Gazette.

2. Exemption—(1) Trustpower Limited (“Trustpower”) is exempted from complying with the obligation in clause 10.14(2)(b) of the Electricity Industry Participation Code 2010 (“Code”) not to treat predictable load, expected to exceed 6,000kWh in any 12 month rolling period, as unmetered load.

(2) This exemption applies only to installation control points (“ICPs”) 0007146031RN859, 0007146032RN499, 0007146034RN516, 00007146035RN953, and 0007146036RN593.

3. Term—This exemption expires on the earlier of:

- a. the close of 31 December 2026;
- b. the date when Trustpower is no longer recorded in the registry as being the trader for any of the five ICPs;
and
- c. the date when all of the five ICPs are metered.

4. Reasons for granting the exemption—The reasons for granting this exemption are:

- a. Trustpower would incur unreasonable costs to retrofit metering, which would deliver no benefit to the consumer;
- b. reconciling as unmetered load will have no material impact on submission accuracy as the load is predictable and of a type approved by the Authority;
- c. the exemption will have no impact on any other participant or service provider and will not affect any other Code provision; and
- d. granting the requested exemption meets the requirements in section 11(2) of the Act.

Electricity Industry (Exemption No. 146 (Trustpower Limited)) Exemption Revocation Notice 2016

Under section 11(3) of the Electricity Industry Act 2010 (“Act”), the Electricity Authority (“Authority”) gives the following notice.

Notice

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice is the Electricity Industry (Exemption No. 146 (Trustpower Limited)) Exemption Revocation Notice 2016.

3. Reasons for revoking the exemption—The reasons for revoking Exemption 146 are:

- a. the legal entity Trustpower Limited that was granted Exemption 146 has ceased to exist as a result of a demerger that came into effect on 20 October 2016;
- b. although Exemption 146 applies to six installation control points (“ICPs”), only five ICPs now need to be exempted from the obligation in clause 10.14, as the result of one ICP having been fitted with a meter;
- c. Exemption 146 refers to a clause in the Electricity Industry Participation Code 2010 that has since been revoked and the obligation now appears in a different clause (clause 10.14);
- d. the Authority has granted a new exemption to replace Exemption 146; and
- e. revoking Exemption 146 meets the requirements in section 11(3) of the Act for revoking exemptions.

Explanatory note

This notice updates the Dental Council fee schedule with effect from 1 April 2017. The changes consist of:

- The changes in fees and levies were consulted on with dentists and dental specialists, dental therapists, dental hygienists, orthodontic auxiliaries, dental technicians and clinical dental technicians and other stakeholders during November and December 2016. Following the close of the consultation period on 16 December 2016, the 2017/2018 fees and levies were approved by the Dental Council at its meeting on 24 January 2017.
- The refunds of disciplinary levies are being made for the 2017/2018 practicing year to dental therapists, dental hygienists, orthodontic auxiliaries, dental technicians and clinical dental technicians as the balances of the disciplinary levy reserves associated with those professions are forecast to be above minimum disciplinary reserves as at 31 March 2017, as determined under the Dental Council's Level of Reserves policy. Only practitioners for the above-named professions who hold a current 2016/17 annual practicing certificate or are a TMMR applicant for 2017/18, will receive a refund of disciplinary levies.
- Except as described above, no other changes have been made to fees as previously published in the Oral Health Practitioners (Fees) Notice 2016 (No. 2) published in the New Zealand Gazette, 1 September 2016, Issue No. 77, Notice No. 2016-gs4939.
